Bicycles: Powering Possibilities

Now open through February 15, 2026

Henry Ford Museum of American Innovation®

In the 19th century, the bicycle introduced Americans to the freedom and power of personal transportation. Trace the story of pedal powered mobility through historic and contemporary bicycles, vintage accessories, archival documents and photos, interactive experiences for all ages, and profiles of important builders, riders and racers from the past 200 years.

Free with digital corporate membership pass or included with museum admission.

Our War Too: Women in Service

Member Preview May 24

May 25– September 7

Henry Ford Museum of American Innovation®

Making its Midwest traveling debut, this special exhibition honors the nearly 350,000 America women who answered the call to serve their country during World WarII. With over 200 unique artifacts from The National WWII Museum's collection, explore the efforts, struggles and accomplishments of these servicewomen, the impacts of which extend into the present day.

Free with digital corporate membership pass or included with museum admission.

Glass Artist-in-Residence

Nick Mount (May 22-26),

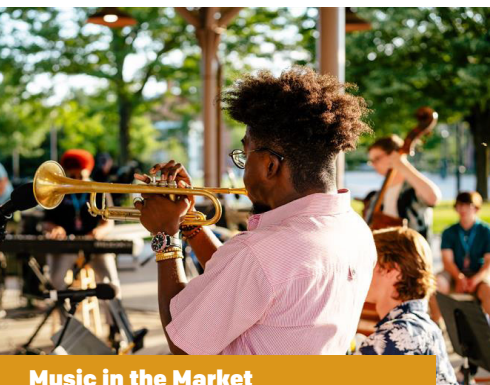

Boyd Sugiki and Lisa Zerowitz (July 28-August 1)

Greenfield Village

The Henry Ford invites internationally renowned artists to spend a week in the Greenfield Village Glass Shop each season. The artist in residence collaborates with our glassblowers, creating unique objects that demonstrate their distinctive approach to glassmaking for our visitors. Each artist creates one work of art destined for The Henry Ford's collection.
